

DIGITAL GROWTHSCALE

Contact Page Form Content & Submission Structure

Website-ready content, conditional form fields, consent statements, routing, and confirmation messages

Prepared for website development and CRM/form implementation

Version: July 2026

Document Guide

Purpose

This document consolidates the complete Digital GrowthScale contact form content. It is organized so the web developer, CRM administrator, and internal teams can quickly understand which fields appear to all users, which fields are conditional, how inquiries should be routed, and what confirmation messages should display after submission.

4G	General Inquiry
5	Universal Additional Questions
6	Privacy, Consent, and Form Footer
7	Submission Confirmation Messages
8	Routing, Notifications, and Implementation Checklist

1. Recommended Contact Page Experience

H1: Let's Talk About What You're Building

Intro copy: Tell us who you are and how we can help. Your inquiry will be sent directly to the appropriate Digital GrowthScale team - no generic inbox and no unnecessary delays.

Recommended Form Behavior

- Use one smart form with conditional fields instead of separate forms for every inquiry type.
- Initially display only the universal fields and the inquiry type selector.
- After the visitor chooses an inquiry type, reveal only the fields relevant to that selection.
- Keep required fields to the minimum needed for routing and qualification.
- Show a clear response expectation: Digital GrowthScale typically responds within one business day.
- Send an automated confirmation email immediately after submission.

Recommended Initial View

Field	Input Type	Requirement / Guidance
Full Name*	Text field	Required for all submissions.
Work Email*	Email field	Required. Validate the email format.
Company or Organization	Text field	Optional for candidates; recommended for all business inquiries.
Inquiry Type*	Dropdown	Controls which conditional fields appear.
